1 SNAS POLICY IN THE FIELD OF PT AND ILC

1. In accreditation process, in compliance with EA policy, SNAS make use of proficiency testing and interlaboratory comparisons as one of important means for check of achieved results of measurements, tests and calibrations for ensuring comparability of results on national and international level.
2. SNAS promotes and invites laboratories to participation in national and international PT and ILC programmes (particularly those of EA and APLAC).
3. SNAS organizes bilateral comparisons during accreditation assessment, if possible, in laboratories and where relevant also in inspection bodies.
4. SNAS promotes PT and ILC organizing by other entities in SR. In this connection tries that PT and ILC programmes were in line with policy and requirements of international organizations EA and ILAC and thus could be accepted by SNAS in connection with accreditation.
5. When organizes national PT and ILC projects, SNAS adheres to principles of protection of author's rights and of confidential information in compliance with internationally adopted principles and SNAS regulations.
